Interprofessional Continuing Education Course "Review of Current Periodontal Disease Topics"

Presenter: LCDR Stefano Palazzolo, DDS, MS

Course Description:

This course provides a review of periodontal diseases, the immune response, and both surgical and non-surgical interventions. Staging and Grading will be discussed and the importance of the Clinical Attachment Level (CAL). The role of the dental hygienist as a periodontal co-therapist will be emphasized.

Course Objectives:

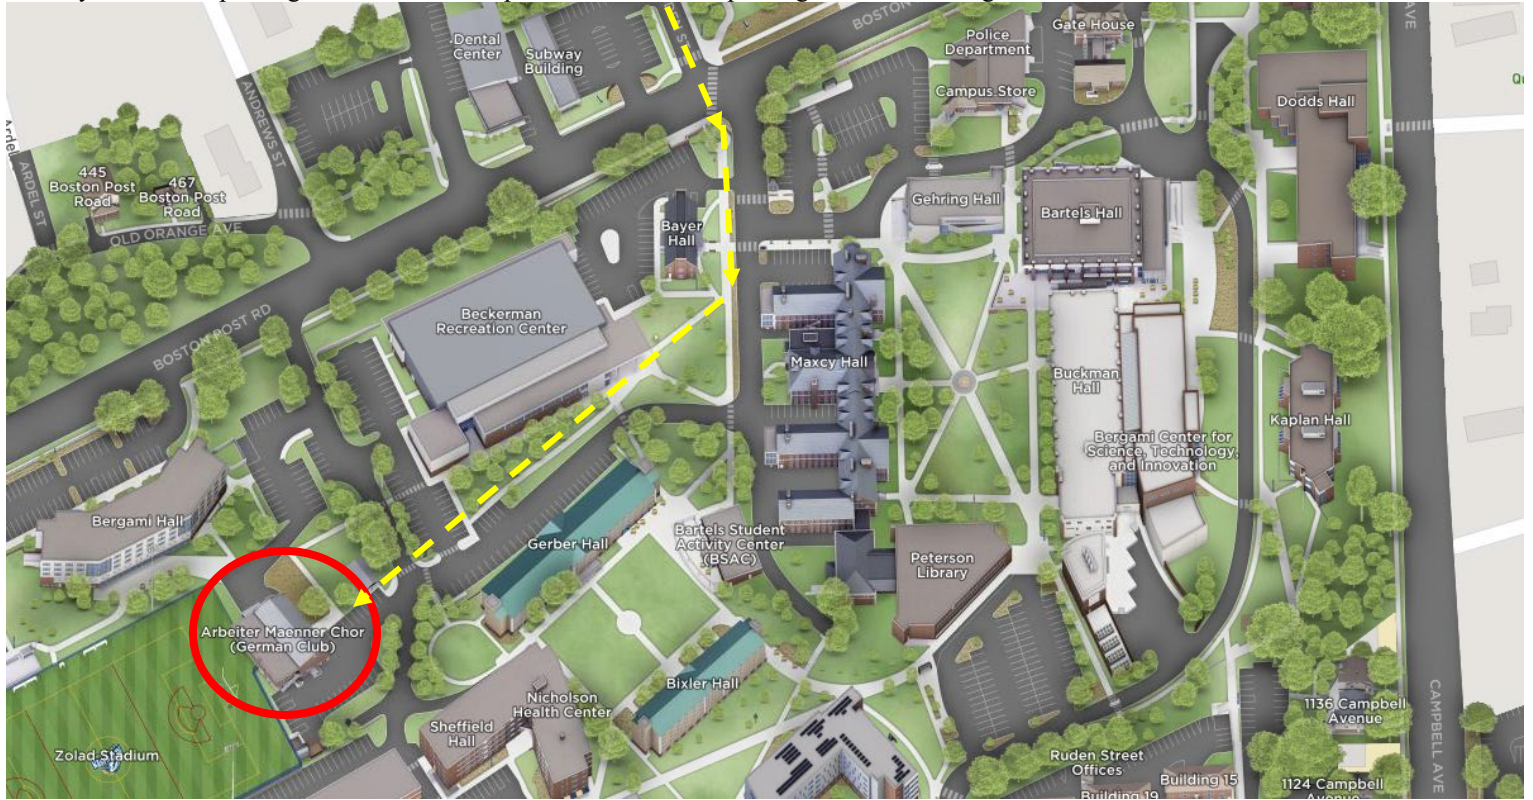

1. Describe treatment guidelines for a variety of periodontal patients including but not limited to periodontal emergencies, nonsurgical therapy, and dentin hypersensitivity.
2. Explore various osseous surgical procedures, including guided tissue regeneration, and full/partial thickness flaps.
3. Describe the types of materials used in implants and the procedures for the placement and restoration of implants.
4. Apply evidence-based protocols to identify periodontal therapies that will reduce the bacterial load and those that modulate the host response.
5. Identify periodontal risk factors that are acquired, environmental, and genetic.

Speaker's Professional Biography:

LCDR Stefano Palazzolo attended New York University College of Dentistry (DDS, 2015) and then completed a highly competitive one-year General Practice Residency (GPR) at Naval Medical Center San Diego. From 2018-2021, LCDR Palazzolo attended the Naval Postgraduate Dental School in Bethesda, MD for advanced residency training in Periodontics. In May 2022 he achieved board certification to become a Diplomate of the American Board of Periodontology. LCDR Stefano Palazzolo is currently serving as the Periodontist of NMRTU Groton, CT since July 2021.
